(4) Coonal case

The Pet & brought a suit in 1879 for possessg patel office & thereabout against Veere Gowda (father of the present patel) in the Dy Comr's Court. The Dy Comr found that both pet & Veere Gowda were hukdars, pet & having a preferential huk & directed the appointment of pet & to the patelship of the Village. This order was reversed by the Govt in 1885 - mainly on the ground that Veere Gowda had been doing duty for 18 years continuously & that it was undesirable to disturb existing arrangements on light grounds; but pet & was at the same registered as an hukdar on Veere Gowda's death pet & renewed his Dr father's when the said Veera gowda with the intention of depriving his uncle of the Patêli Inchame had got the Patêli registered in his name. Then his uncle represented the matter to the Govt and got the cancelled and the petitioner's uncle was appointed sole Patêl by the order of the then Deputy Commissioner Mr. P. W. Krishna Murthi (Copy put up herewith) - On review the same order was confirmed. When the said Veera gowda appealed to Govt in the time of Mr. Vijendra Das when order was issued to the effect that the petr's uncle was the Sole Inkdar but as the said Veera gowda had served as Patêl for 18 years he might not be disturbed and the names of the petr's uncle and other heirs were directed to be entered in the Regis Cêras Inkdars - That his uncle went to Mysore with the intention of filing appeal but finally such returned to the village where he died subsequently - That the said Veera gowda also died recently. So that there are no other Inkdars besides the petr and his family members -

Prays therefore that his Honour may be appointed as Patêl of the village which is hereditary to their family.

States that he has represented the matter vide by an application together with all the records in original and hence has submitted copies of the same
